

Proof of Life: Knowing You Have Eternal Life
1 John 5:13-21

Proof of Life: Our Confidence through Prayer (vv.14-17)

Introduction

- V.13 is similar to John 20:30-31 – This is the purpose statement of the letter of 1 John.
- From Religious Affections by Jonathan Edwards: God made us so that the only way we can be confident of our salvation is by dying to ourselves, killing our selfish, self-centered natures. Self-examination can be an important part of the process, and we should not neglect to examine our own hearts -- and yet this sort of introspection alone will never give us the assurance we need. Self-examination is all well and good, but the time comes for action. The apostle Paul sought assurance this way by "forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, [pressing] toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus; ... if by any means [he] might attain unto the resurrection of the dead" (Phil 3:13-14, 11); "I therefore so run, not as uncertainly" (1 Cor. 9:26). His assurance of winning the prize come more from running than from considering, and the swiftness of his pace did more for his confidence than any self-examination, no matter how intense.

Those who argue thus attend not to the end for which the Lord taught us to pray. It was not so much for his sake as for ours. He wills indeed, as is just, that due honour be paid him by acknowledging that all which men desire or feel to be useful, and pray to obtain, is derived from him." (Institutes)
  - e. Benny Hinn, "...never, ever, ever go to the Lord and say, 'If it be thy will' Don't allow such faith-destroying words to be spoken from your mouth.   - c. Our assurance rests in an overtly God-centered pursuit
  - d. To put it in the positive, Richard Baxter states, "Every soul that hath a title to this rest places his chief happiness in God. This rest consists in the full and glorious enjoyment of God. He that makes not God his chief good and ultimate end, is in heart a pagan and a vile idolater. Let me ask, then, dost thou truly account it thy chief happiness to enjoy the Lord in glory, or dost thou not? Canst thou say, 'The Lord is my portion? Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire besides thee?'"
